BEERS ON DRAFT

Zero Gravity, Green St. Lager Crisp Pilsner (4.8% abv) $6 (16oz)

Burlington, VT - As crisp and thirst quenching as fresh spring water streaming down the Green Mountains of Vermont. Sometimes the best things in life are the simple pleasures that never fail you. Cool sheets on a hot day, garlic and butter sizzling in a pan, a fresh tomato sliced thick with salt, and the Zero Gravity Green State Lager served ice cold.

Rockaway Brewing, Sentient Beans* "Mini" Stout (3.0%) $7 (16oz)

Rockaway Beach, Queens - Coffee and chocolate, but oh-so-light this rare "session" stout is meant for multiple glugs. Like a tall-boy of java in your trusty roadie kanteen that you slam into your cup-holder every morning on the way to your job as the sun rises over the mountains of the highway. An easy drinking roasty delight!

Transmitter, S10 Spruce Tips Saison (4.1% abv) $7 (16oz)

Navy Yard, Brooklyn - One of my favorite beers of the year so far. Transmitter's house saison brew (one of the best in the city) infused with spruce tip pine needles! This is a wintry mix, my friends, and it is oh-so-delicious. A difficult style to pull off, but Transmitter does so without breaking a sweat.

KCBC, Welcome to the Underworld* Helles Lager (4.7%) $7 (16oz)

Bushwick, BK - Light and fresh and delicate and lovely. KCBC makes out of this (under)world lagers that will put a smile on your face and a rub on your tummy. Feels like Spring is right around the corner.

Hudson Valley, Diadem* Pale Ale (6.0% abv) $8 (16oz)

Beacon, NY - The first time we've had Hudson Valley on draft and they came ready to party! Outrageously smooth and fresh and aromatic and lovely as all get out. Fireworks and neapolitan ice cream. Lovely and lazy Sunday on a hammock. I've got heart eyes for this brew.

Grimm, Psychokinesis Sour (5.0% abv) $8 (16oz)

Bushwick, Brooklyn - Tart and fresh and oh-so-mildly hopped. A "kettle sour" to relax the brain muscles on a blustery evening. Mosaic and El Dorado hops. Grimm executes on these tricky styles masterfully, as well as anyone in NYC or beyond.

Thin Man, Burning Money* IPA (6.6% abv) $8 (16oz)

Buffalo, NY - This pitch perfect NE IPA blows the doors off. Citrusy and pineapply with an amazingly crisp finish. Way too drinkable, way too refreshing. Anytime this hits the draft list it flies...

Red Wine : By The Bottle!

Don't Forget to Ask About the Wild Card Wine!!

RED WINES BY THE BOTTLE

Pinot Noir, Valéry Renaudat (Pinot Noir) Reully, France $27

Silky savory light chocolate aromatic rose petals. Wow! This may just be the value of the century on the Judy's wine list. Absolutely outrageous that such a fine complex balanced French Pinot Noir can fly under the radar and end up in Judy's House Red territory. If you like a Pinot, if you like a light wine with savory vibes, if you like dry fine wine, please, come forth and drink from our cup! (2020)

Négrette, Colombière, "Vinum" (Négrette) Fronton, France $30

Light and bright and yet bold and brackisch. A nice contradiction of a wine, feels like a lipstick red berry picked off a bush. Has a woodsy Frenchy aromatic quality alongside freshness and gluggability. Downright moody. Colombière is a winery we've come back to a few times at Judy's. Mainly their white wines and a rocking pink Pet Nat (also from the obscure Négrette grape). This wine has what those wines share. A unique reflection of this obscure terroir in South West France paired with the artistic sensibility of a winemaker creating beverages with so much love. (2020)

Nerello Mascalese, Ayunta (Nerello Mascalese) Sicily, Italy $39

Red cherries, volcanic rocks, silky rose pedals and a kiss of smoke. Farmed in the shadow of always erupting Mount Etna this wine holds many contradictions. Think of it like a combination of character vibes of White Lotus' Porschia and Isabella. Bright and fresh and easy drinking - and yet - beguiling complex with a mysterious backbone. (2020)

"Ponzichter," Weninger* (Pinot Noir, Zweigelt) Burgenland, Austria $36

Light and bright, fresh and fruity, like red cherries popped off the stem. A smack of funk on the nose, but pretty and silky down the hatch. Weninger is a Judy's stalwart (they're always jumping off and on the list across various vintages). This vintage showcases tension and freshness. You will love it. (2020)

"Churelurez," AntocyÂme* (Merlot, Syrah, Tannat...) South West, France $38

This lively and intoxicating witches brew will draw you to the bar drifting off the ground head first like Pepé Le Pew! Medium to full-bodied, dripping, ripe and stewy black fruit in a wet muddy forest. Sexy and intoxicating violet and velvety aromatics and smashed blackberries on toast. Evocative of French mystery and magic from a tiny appellation, "Côteaux et Terrasses de Montauban," just north of Toulouse by a tiny winery cranking out ultra-natural wines in a far off the beaten path land . A blend of Merlot, Syrah, Tannat, Arboriou this is some French Country hooch that will knock you backwards and on your side. (2021)

RED WINES BY THE BOTTLE (CONT'D)

Cab Sauv, Bosman* (Cabernet Sauvignon) Western Cape, South Africa $26

Balanced and fresh with chocolate and black plums. Full bodied and lush. Round and punchy and yet oh-too-easy drinking. This is our fourth Cuvee from this incredible female owned winery in South Africa. A Judy's staple at this point, they only make good wine that punches way above it's weight class. (2021)

White Wine : By The Bottle!

Don't Forget to Ask About the Wild Card Wine!!

WHITE WINES BY THE BOTTLE

"Entre-Deux-Mers," Turcaud* (Sauvignon, Sémillon) Bordeaux, France $26

This Bordeaux white blend of Sauv Blanc & Sémillon (and a pinch of Sauv Gris & Muscadelle) is crisp and clean with citrus flavors and some green apple. A delightful aroma of fresh grass shavings after a quick mow and after two or three glasses you might taste pears, blanched almonds or basil. (So you should definitely have another glass!) A plutonic ideal French white table wine. (2019)

Soave, Latium (Garganega, Trebbiano di Soave) Veneto, Italy $28

Light and lemony with white flowers and waxy creamy texture. From Judy's favorite winery in the Veneto : Latium (this is our third wine from them). This is a classy and unctious white wine that will refresh you with crisp lively fruit while at the same time intoxicate you with complexity and texture. Soave isn't a style most folks are familiar with, but that's ok for the Venetians who've been chugging it for thousands of years and don't mind keeping it for themselves. Join the party! (2021)

Hárslevelű, Benedek (Hárslevelű) Hungary $35

The triumphant return of Hungarian white wine to the Judy's wine list, just in time for winter white season! White rocks with an herbacious crunch and green fruit out the wazzo, lime peel and green apple. This wine is vibrant and fresh and everything you expect from the supremely underrated Hungarian wine scene. Lovely and crisp and soul soothing. (2020)

Sylvaner, Domaine Charles Baur (Sylvaner) Alsace, France $33

Ripe pears and a smashing bouquet of fresh herbs and a crack of white pepper. Clean and mean with a mighty sheen. I absolutely love the Alsace and you should too! Nowhere else do you get this wonderful combination of French aromatics and ripe German fruit. Lovely and powerful. (2019)

Assyrtiko, Domaine Zafeirakis* (Assyrtiko) Thessalia, Greece $39

Freshocity and crispocity through the roof. This Assyrtiko (my favorite Greek white grape) is absolutely stunning and laser sharp. It could cut down a red wood in one chop. Lemon slices and sea spray and a waggle of a brush of fresh herbs. A droplet of cream and intoxicating aromatics make this one of my favorite whites of the year so far. (2021)

"Batela Do Miño," Adegas do Demo (Treixadura, Godello) Galicia, Spain $39

Aromatics that make you want to sigh and cuddle up with a puppy. Fresh picked yellow fruits that refresh and delight. Galician wines are extremely underrated and the non-Albariño whites even more so. Check out this beautiful balanced, complex and mega-sunny blend to see what great heights Galicia is capable of. (2020)

Pink, Orange, Sparkling Wine : By The Bottle!

Don't Forget to Ask About the Wild Card Wine!!

PINK WINE (ROSE)

"Strawberry Mullet" Cutter Cascadia (Zinfandel) Washington, USA $36

Let your luscious hair down with this ripping rosé that is unique and yet utterly delightful. Raspberry lemonade with swirling juicy strawberries and cream. Watermelon chewed to the rind. A crack of white pepper and a smack of funk. (2021)

Day Wines, Pinot Noir Lemonade* (Pinot Noir) Oregon, USA $40

Fresh and thirst quenching with citrusy zip and an ultra light blush of red fruit. Day traditionally makes some extremely sought after and delicious high end Pinot Noir in Oregon, but wild fires smoked up the crop in 2020 and 2021 making the usual plan go out the window. Day is a winemaker who thinks on her feet and instead of tossing those vintages astray she quickly pressed and pivoted the wine into a Rosé hoping for the best and wow did she succeed. The past two years this wine has FLOWN off the shelves. In 2022, she was sparred wild fire smoke taint, but she made the "Lemonade" anyway! Fresh & zippy just like a pink lemonade this wine shines bright like a diamond. (2022)

SPARKLING WINE (CLASSIC!)

Prosecco Extra Dry, Case Paolin (Glera) Veneto, Italy $30

This outrageously good Prosecco will have you dancing on the ceiling like Lionel Richie and second guessing your assumptions. Prosecco doubters should give this a try and see what they've been missing and Prosecco lovers should come running at full sprint. Extremely dry with fantastic crisp fruit and a super long finish. Yum factor through the roof. (NV)

SPARKLING WINE (PET NAT)

"Morphos," Oyster River (Seyval Blanc, Cayuga) Finger Lakes / Maine $39

This wild and briney Pet Nat is here to spin your head in circles and make you re-think American wine. Fresh and yeasty with powerful crunchy aromatics and a wheaty after-bite. From "french-american hybrid" grapes grown in the Finger Lakes and then trucked over to "Oyster River Winegrowers," located in the middle of nowhere AKA Warren, Maine. These "fermenters" are part of a newer American movement by farmers who refuse to be traditionally labeled and are brewing / fermenting a variety of beverages with little regard for our traditional way of framing these beverages : cider, beer, wine, fruit hooch, and mixtures of both. You're seeing this all over the country right now and it's extremely exciting and most importantly extraordinarily delicious. (2022)

MORE WINE ----->

SPARKLING WINE (PET NAT)

"Edelzwicker," Bloomer Creek (Cayuga, Riesling ...) Finger Lakes, NY $42

Smokey sticky tamarind and marmalade jam with lemon zest and rocking fizzy bubbles. This is out there stuff, bleeding edge American natural wine at it's best! A blend of Cayuga White (60%), Riesling (35%) and Gewurztraminer (5%) producing a one-of-one bottle that is outrageously delicious and yet unlike anything else in the wine world. Bloomer Creek was already one of my favorite American wineries and this wine has me saluting them with an arched back. There's so much I could say about this wild masterpiece, but take note of the Cayuga White a hybrid grape INVENTED at Cornell. This wine could not be more New York. If you're curious about where the cool kids in American wine are up to (American hybrid grapes, wild Pet Nats, mixed fermentations, etc. etc.) this is a great wine to start on that journey and also it's yummy as hell. (NV)

ORANGE WINE

"Where ya PJs at?" Maloof* (Pinot Gris, Riesling, Schönburger) Oregon $43

A one-of-one delight! Tamarind with ripe pineapple drizzled in honey. Freshness and pop with beguiling smoky magic. The Maloofs are a special winery for me. They make fun and yet complex and interesting wines that are extremely varied and go in lots of different directions, this bottle is no exception. Extremely delicious and yet like nothing else around. Willamette Valley, Oregon continues to be a land of magic. (2021)

"Buntsandstein," Enderle & Moll (Müller-Thurgau) Baden, Germany $42

Roasted sage and thyme with dried apricots and grilled pineapple. A finish that lasts forever and serious "fine wine" vibes emanating off the glass. Complex with lots going on (this is not a shy wine), but in my humble opinion it punches hard and way above it's weight class. If you know Judy's wine list well you know we're into "unheralded" German / Austrian / Hungarian white varietals and Müller-Thurgau is one of our favorites. This beautiful bottle showcases the amazing things Müller is capable of by one of my favorite German winemakers to boot. A very special wine. (2020)
